Terms and Conditions of Sale

1. Property of the goods shall not pass until the seller has received payment in full, although risk in the goods passes on delivery. Where the goods have been delivered to the buyer, but the seller has not been paid, then until such payment is received the buyer agrees to keep the goods as a fiduciary for the seller, to store or otherwise identify the goods in a manner that clearly shows the ownership of the seller and, if required, to deliver up the goods to the seller.
2. If the applicant / customer is or acts as the trustee of a trust the applicant / customer shall warrant that: a/ the trust has been and remains validly constituted and the trustee has been and remains validly appointed. b/ the trustee is empowered and authorised by the terms of the documents constituting the trust or otherwise by law to enter into this transaction. c/ the company has a right of recourse to the assets of the trust to satisfy any liability incurred by the trustee arising out of this transaction.
3. The buyer will be responsible for immediate examination of goods after arrival at place of delivery, and the seller shall, except as may otherwise be provided by law, not be liable for any claim to which it would otherwise be liable in respect of damaged goods including goods damaged in course of transit. Particulars of such claims to be notified to the seller in writing three (3) working days after arrival of the goods at the place of delivery.
4. The seller will not accept return of goods unless such return is authorised by the seller.
5. GST is not included in prices quoted unless so stated, but will be charged to the buyer's account when applicable.
6. The Guarantors personally guarantee full payment of any outstanding account, and any expenses incurred in obtaining or attempting to obtain payment of any overdue amount shall be recoverable as part of the overdue amount.

The team at NAS Australia prides itself on our ability to deliver the right products at the right price, backed by exceptional pre- and post-sale services. We offer advice gratuitously.

While NAS Australia uses reasonable efforts to ensure advice provided and information supplied is accurate, NAS Australia makes no warranties or representations as to the accuracy of the advice or material.
